Definitions

1. The following terms have these meanings in this Policy:
 - a) “Athlete” – an individual registered as an Athlete with Special Olympics Canada or a Chapter
 - b) “Chapter” – means the Provincial or Territorial Special Olympics organization recognized by Special Olympics Canada as a provincial or territorial governing body of Special Olympics
 - c) “Organization-sanctioned event or activity” – means any local, regional, provincial or national games, competitions, events, programs, or activities sanctioned by Special Olympics Canada or the Chapter.

Purpose

2. This Policy describes the criteria an Athlete must meet to be eligible to participate in Special Olympics.

Eligibility

3. The mandate of Special Olympics is to provide sports programs for people with intellectual disabilities.

An individual is considered to have an intellectual disability based on the following three criteria*:

- i. Intellectual functioning level (IQ) is generally below 70-75;
- ii. Significant limitations exist in two or more adaptive skill areas;
- iii. The condition generally manifests itself before the age of 18.

(* based on the American Association of Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (AAIDD) definition)

Adaptive skills are assessed in the person’s every day environment across all aspects of their life. A person with limits in intellectual functioning who does not have limits in adaptive skill areas may not be diagnosed as having an intellectual disability.

Adaptive skills include:

- Conceptual skills – language and literacy; money, time and number concepts; self-direction
- Social skills – interpersonal skills; social responsibility, self-esteem, gullibility, naiveté (i.e. wariness), social problem solving, the ability to follow rules/obey laws and to avoid being victimized.

If there is any uncertainty about eligibility, the opinion of a professional will be required and considered.

4. Athletes, if applicable, must also meet the eligibility criteria described in the following documents:
 - a) Eligibility for Participants with Down Syndrome Policy (this policy describes how a person with a Symptomatic Atlantoaxial instability can participate in Special Olympics)
 - b) Blood-Borne Contagious Infections Policy (this policy describes how a person with blood-borne contagious infections can participate in Special Olympics)
5. Individuals interested in participating as Athletes in Special Olympics must register with the applicable Chapter, which effectively registers them with Special Olympics Canada, and agree to abide by the sport rules, policies, codes of conduct, philosophies, and practices of Special Olympics Canada and its applicable Chapter.
6. No Athlete may be excluded from registration because of a prohibited ground identified in applicable Human Rights Legislation, which may include, but not limited to, race or perceived race, nationality, ancestry, place of origin, color, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, class, marital status, family status, religion, political belief, physical or mental disability, economic status or source of income; unless there is reasonable justification or to the point of undue hardship.

AGE REQUIREMENTS

7. The minimum age for participation in a community program is at the discretion of each Chapter in consultation with the accredited community/program. There is no maximum age limitation for participation in community programs.
8. There are minimum age limits for participation in sanctioned Special Olympics competitions. Each Chapter sets minimum age requirements for participation in general competitions and for qualifying competitions in advance of Provincial/Territorial Games and for Provincial/Territorial Games.
